DESIGNER BATHWARE

FREEDOM OF IMAGINATION

“My design philosophy is to ‘please’ both the client yet the ‘eye’, when achieved it gives a great sense of satisfaction. It’s about form and function, striving to achieve that balance between cutting edge and timelessness”

Jo Irwin is an Australian based interior designer who has worked on projects throughout Australia, New Zealand, the United Kingdom and Gibraltar.

OUR STORY

Drawing on the company's rich manufacturing history which spans more than 30 years, Marblo® utilises the latest techniques to explore methods which result in the highest quality innovative products, which are both environmentally sustainable to manufacture and aesthetically pleasing.

Client driven research and development has led to creative engineering solutions and a product without compromise. Founded in 1979, the maxim of Marblo® is and will always be 'Freedom of Imagination'.

The Mojo Collection of bath ware by renowned Australian designer Jo Irwin, utilise simple shapes and elegant lines to form an almost sculptural range of products which feel at home in any bathroom modern, contemporary or classic.

Manufactured using clever chemistry, Marblo® bath ware are highly chemical and stain resistant resulting in a product that is easy to clean, durable and can be enjoyed for years on end.
